THE SHANSHAN VILLAINIES

Detailed Account of the Murders.

MISSIONARY SUFFERINGS

Letter Received by Mrs. J. B. Atherton From Mrs. Hartwell at Chefoo.

The following account of the terrible Shan-shan murders of missionaries in China was received by Mrs. J. B. Atherton from Mrs. J. B. Hartwell of the Baptist Mission at Chefoo:

A native Christian teacher, a graduate of the North China College at Tientsin, who has been employed as a teacher in a boys' school at Feng Chow fu Shan-shan, arrived in Tientsin Saturday evening, September 1st, having escaped from the general massacre. He left Shan-shan on the 24th of August and after many vicissitudes arrived safe. He is a remarkably intelligent young man, who, within the past two years, has learned to speak English with great precision.

He is abundantly qualified to give an accurate and detailed report. His account is as follows:
On June 28th the first murders were committed as far as known. This was at Hsiao Hsien, where two ladies of the China Inland Mission were living alone—Miss Whitcomb and Miss Seawell. Their death was reported by telegram long since. On the day mentioned some 200 Boxers broke into their compound subsequent to the following incident. A few rough youths began attacking their front gate. They sent a helper to the District Magistrate to ask for help. The official came himself, and finding no further harm than the smashing of the gate, reproved the informant and struck him with his own hand. This gave notice to the crowd that they could attack with impunity. They began at once. Another appeal to the Magistrate was made, who replied that his orders were to protect the Chinese and not foreigners. A larger crowd at once entered the premises.

The ladies in their helplessness knelt before the crowd and begged for mercy, but they were replied to by being beaten on the heads with clubs at intervals. Some also took glass and broke it over the heads of the ladies. The ladies lived about an hour from the first attack upon them. Their clothes were taken off and their watches taken away. When the official was informed of their death, he sent over two boxes for coffins. These coffins were placed in the Baptist cemetery recently finished in their own court yard. The details of this terrible affair were learned through a messenger sent from the American Board Mission at Fen Chow fu. The next disaster in order of time was on June 25, at Sheo Yang, seventy miles east of Tientsin city. This is the mission station of Independent workers under Mr. T. W. Pigott. There were here at the time Mr. and Mrs. Pigott and son, Mr. Robinson, tutor of the late recently arrived, two daughters of Rev. Atwater of Fen Chow fu, and Miss Duval, also a teacher.

These seven persons were driven from their homes into the huts not far away. They soon returned to their home, however, and were there arrested by the District Magistrate and compelled to go to the capital, Peking. On the way they were chained with handcuffs and collars, and not permitted to buy food. The soldiers were not even allowed to sell them eggs at a dollar apiece. On July 6th they were taken, and on arrival at Tai Yuen placed in separate rooms. Mrs. Pigott not being allowed to communicate with her husband. On June 25th most of the foreign houses at Tai Yuen had been burned, the missionaries, with the exception of Miss Coombs, having escaped to the house of Mr. Farthing, of the English Baptist Mission. Miss Coombs was unable to escape. Being surrounded by native school girls. Hundreds of Boxers and rough people had crowded into their houses, but several of the missionaries managed to fight through the crowd and escaped. During the rioting, many were trampled upon, two school girls being trod to death.

Miss Coombs pleaded with the soldiers who were sharing in the looting and burning, to save her life. They seized her instead and threw her into the flames of the burning houses. Later nothing but a pile of ashes was found in the place where she fell. The above missionaries must have remained several days at the house of Mr. Farthing. On July 7th the Governor sent for a complete list of the names of the foreigners. On the 9th, which was a Monday, he ordered them all to come to his Yamen. The missionaries were taken to the place where they were to be executed. On entering the first gate of the Yamen they were surrounded by a guard of soldiers. This being completed, about thirty Boxers with drawn swords were allowed to enter the enclosure and each foreigner was put to death. They were all beheaded and the heads placed in baskets, were hung upon the four gates of the city. About forty native Christians were killed in the same time.

The following day ten Roman Catholic priests were killed in the same way. They are reported as chiefly Frenchmen. The bodies of the thirty-three foreigners killed were placed in wooden cases and all buried in the Baptist cemetery, presumably in the lot of those killed is not complete. The list of those killed is as follows: Mr. Stokes and wife, Mr. Farthing and wife, Mr. Beynon, wife and three children, Dr. Farthing, wife and one child, Dr. Miller Wilson and wife, Mr. Whitehouse and wife. This makes twenty-two at Tai Yuen, which, with the seven from Sheo-yang, makes twenty-nine. It is for the massacre of thirty-three foreigners that the Swedish Governor of Shan-shan demands a reward. It is also reported that in and around Tai Yuen 300 native Christians have been killed. The English Baptist Mission at Hsin Chou, is twenty-five miles north of Tai Yuen, on the great road running north. The six missionaries stationed here were: Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. McCurran, a single gentleman and a single lady. These are all reported to have escaped on horseback to the mountains, and may possibly have avoided the pursuers. It is distressing to hear of their whereabouts.

The mission of the American Board at Tai Ku, some twenty miles south of Tai Yuen, seems to have escaped the first intensity of the general attack upon foreigners. This is said to be due to the efforts of the local official, who friendly spirit of the missionaries, and the abundant occasion to be friendly to them. On July 21st the Boxers came in a crowd of about 200 to attack these mission premises. One of the principal native helpers was killed and the gates of the compound were broken in. The members of the mission present were as follows: Mr. F. W. Davis, Mr. G. D. Will, Mrs. M. D. H. Clapp and wife, Miss Rowena Bird and Miss Susan Partridge. The three gentlemen tried to resist the attack by going upon the roofs of the houses and firing upon the crowd as they came in. A few of the attackers were not killed, but the ammunition soon failed and the missionaries were helpless. They were soon killed and beheaded, and their bodies thrown into the flames of the burning houses. The three ladies, with a native teacher, fled to the rear court, where they were cut down in like manner and beheaded. It is said the heads were all taken to Tai Yuen and exposed as the others had been; also that the hearts of the three men were cut out and carried to the capital. One hundred Christians were killed at the same time, sixty of them being Roman Catholics.

The American Board Mission at Fen Chow fu is fifty miles southwest of Tai Yuen. It was one of the last victims of the rage of Yu Hsien. Here both the prefect and the district magistrate have been kindly disposed to foreigners. The members of the mission present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Atwater and two children, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Price and one son. There were also present in the city members of the Swedish Mission, Mr. and Mrs. Lagergren, naturalized, two priests and two rifles. The demand to hasten their departure was repeated. A request was made on behalf of Mrs. Atwater, who was about to be confined, that they be allowed a few days' respite, but the Prefect insisted that they were to be sent away to the coast and must be ready the next day. Four country carts were prepared for them and their goods duly packed. They were to start August 15th. A guard of twenty soldiers was made ready. As soon as the arrangements were made, the foreign houses were sealed up.

The escaped teacher (who brings this report) rode a horse given him by Mr. Atwater. Ere long on the journey he heard suspicious remarks made by the soldiers. From these he gathered that mischief was meant, and on the advice of one of the soldiers, escaped from the party. When not far away he heard the firing of a gun, and afterwards learned that this was the signal for attack on the party. At this signal the soldiers rushed upon the helpless victims and cut their bodies severally with their swords. Their bodies were then stripped and hurled together in a ditch by the roadside. The escaped messenger returned the second day to learn the fate of his foreign friends. In addition to the above he heard that three Swedish missionaries at Kung King Chou had been sent away by the official to the Yellow river, their escape being uncertain. He learned also that five women at Chieh Hsiu Hsien had made an effort to escape and that a Miss French and Miss Palmer had fled to Hung Tung Hsien.

This messenger then started for Tientsin, August 2nd and arrived at Tai Ku where the terrible end of the mission there was told him. He passed through the mountains and at Hual Lu found Gov. Yu Hsien with troops assembled. The Governor had gone as far as Hsin Lo for the relief of Peking, but having heard of the capture of the city had returned to Hual Lu.

The messenger arrived at Cheng Ting August 25 and was pleased to find that twenty foreigners were safe in the cathedral there. Among these were Mr. Griffith, wife and child, Mr. Brown and wife, one R. B. Bishop, three priests and five nuns, together with five railway men (one French, three Italian and one Belgian). Brigadier General here had protected them all and was quite friendly.

Going further north he found 50 miles of railway still intact between Tien Chou and Pao-tung-fu. At Pao-tung-fu he succeeded in getting a boat and came safe through to Tien-tsin with his terrible message of horror and anguish. He brought with him on a piece of blue cloth the name of Mr. C. W. Price, with the words, "This man's story will be reliable."

IT'S INDISPUTABLE.
Because It's in Honolulu and Can Be Investigated.

Like all statements which have preceded this and like all which will follow, the party interested is a citizen. In a city of about 25,000 people it is hard to hide the doings of your neighbors. It is an easy matter to find the residence of Mr. Metcalf. The reader has not to sit down after he peruses this statement, which follows, and wonder—as he would wonder were this case in San Francisco—if the facts can be credited. He has not to ask "Are they genuine?" The man is here at home. Honolulu proof should convince. Read this:

Mr. F. Metcalf of this city gives us the following information: "I was afflicted with a painful feeling in my back for over five years. The various remedies resorted to did me no good, until, falling in with the advice of a friend (Mr. W. J. Maxwell) I procured at the Hollister Drug Co.'s some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. I had hardly finished taking them when the pain left me altogether, and I now feel that I have been completely cured of the terrible suffering I underwent formerly. By keeping a box of the pills in the house I am fortified against any possible return of my complaint at future times. It seems almost miraculous that the pains should have vanished so speedily. All sufferers from backache should get some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at 50 cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

MAKING PORK OUT OF SNAKES.

"Snakes as food for hogs beat chestnuts, acorns, or any of the foodstuffs," says a correspondent of the Washington Post. "Of course you know that in some parts of Europe pigs have killed out the vipers. I was in West Virginia some months ago and found that a novel industry had been undertaken by a number of men whose lands were overrun by the small variety of snakes that infests that section. The snakes were so numerous as to be a nuisance. One farmer tried the hog as an exterminator. He succeeded so well that he found the drove of animals he had turned loose on the plantation had not only decreased the number of snakes, but that they were actually thriving on them. He told his neighbors about it, and now the whole valley is one large hogpen in which hundreds of the animals are feeding literally on snakes. Formerly no one would buy land there, notwithstanding the beauty of the place, because of the snakes; but now that the remedy has been found and at the same time big money is made on the pigs that grow fat on snake food, the land is destined to be in great demand, as it is the most fertile land in West Virginia. This may sound like a fairy snake tale, but I assure you that it is correct, and that hundreds of pigs are sold from the valley every year that have literally become fat on snakes."
